Architecture Program Reports for all spring 2016 visits are due September 7, 2015. These visits will be completed under the provisions of The 2014 Conditions for Accreditation and the 2015 edition of the NAAB Procedures for Accreditation.

In addition, programs that were visited in 2013 and received an eight-year term of accreditation are required to submit Interim Progress Reports by November 30, 2015 (see NAAB Procedures, 2012 Edition, AMENDED). This list was published on May 26, 2015.

If your program is not listed and you believe it should be, or if your program is listed and you think it should not be, or if you have questions about this list or other matters related to accreditation, please contact the NAAB at info@naab.org or 202.783.2007.

Vision: The NAAB aspires to be the leader in establishing educational quality assurance standards to enhance the value, relevance, and effectiveness of the architectural profession.

Mission: The NAAB develops and maintains a system of accreditation in professional architecture education that is responsive to the needs of society and allows institutions with varying resources and circumstances to evolve according to their individual needs.
